CHIEF COURT OF MYSORE

D.O. No. 7 24-25-

Bangalore, dated 17th July 1924.

CB 16-24-1

Dear Sir,

I am desired to inform you that an application for enrolment as First Grade Pleader from one Mr. C. Jaya Rao, a retired Amildar, has been received and is pending orders before the Chief Court. It is understood that he was in the service of Government as an Amildar when his services were dispensed with under Government Order No.7161-3/L.R. 142-21-3 dated the 20th June 1922 for the reason that it had been established that he had made an offer of bribes to the Deputy Comissioner, but that on further consideration the Government sanctioned to him a compassionate pension of Rs.30/- per mensem ( Vide G.O. No.4526-8/C.B. 193-22-2 dated 6th March 1923). The rules require that the applicant for enrolment should satisfy the Chief Court as to his moral conduct and character. I am to state that if there be any information which the Government desire to place before the Chief Court in connection with the present application, the Judges will be glad to take the same into consideration before finally disposing of the application, and to add that the application will come on for hearing on ar after the 28th instant.

Yours Sincerely,

Sheemisadopuchin

Government Advocate's Office,
BANGALORE, 10th Sept., 1924.

Dear Mr. Anantaraman,

I am sending herewith, for information, a copy of the application filed before the Chief Court by one Mr. C. Jaya Rao, an ex-Amildar, for his being enrolled as a First Grade Pleader. In view of the statements made by him in paragraphs 6 to 10 of his application, a Full Bench of the Chief Court have, on the 8th instant, decided to hear me (as Amicus Curiae) on the point and have accordingly given me notice (enclosed herewith for reference and return) that the application will be taken up on the 17th instant. Though I am not formally representing Government in the matter, I should, however, like to be fully conversant with the details of the case and under the circumstances, I request you to kindly send me any files or papers that may be available, relating to the charges that led to his being compulsorily retired from

IN THE CHIEF COURT OF MYSORE, BANGALORE.

Civil Petition No. 3 of 1924-25.

Enrolment as a First Grade Pleader.

Petitioner:- C. JAYA RAO.

Under rule 4 of the rules and orders under the Legal Practitioners' Regulation, the Petitioner humbly begs to state as follows:-

1. That he passed the B. A. Degree Examination of the Madras University in the year 1896 and herewith produces the diploma granted to him. He produces also the other certificates for his having passed the Mysore Local Service Examinations prescribed for a Pleader under the rules. (Please vide enclosures G. to L.).

2. That he served the Mysore Government for 25 years and five months out of which period he was an Amildar for more than five years and that he has now retired from service.

3. He exercised the Powers of a third class Magistrate for 3 years and those of the second class for two years.

4. He belongs to a respectable family and begs to produce certificates of respectability of character and good moral conduct. (Please vide Enclosures E & F).

5. He is thus qualified for admission as a First

Grade

Grade Pleader.

6. One peculiar incident in his official career which culminated in his retirement and which the Petitioner feels called upon to submit is, that the Deputy Commissioner of Kadur (Mr. K. Mylar Rao) made two allegations against him viz.-

(i) that he suggested to the Deputy Commissioner of Kadur District (Mr. K. Mylar Rao) that he would get the horse of Mr. Morgan, as a consideration for his recommending the grant of the land applied for by Mr. Morgan.

(ii) that five days after, he also suggested to the Deputy Commissioner that a Coffee Planter Mr. Ganesha Rao by name, was prepared to pay the Deputy Commissioner Rs.500/- if the latter should similarly recommend the grant of another piece of land applied for by the said planter.

7. The Petitioner while repudiating the charges, prayed for an open and formal enquiry, but the Revenue Commissioner held a Departmental and confidential enquiry which consisted only of the examination of the petitioner and the Deputy Commissioner. Even the two planters on whose behalf it is alleged the offer was made, were not examined, possibly because, the Deputy Commissioner himself deposed that Mr. Ganesha Rao told him that the alleged offer was false while Mr. Morgan issued him (Deputy Commissioner) a notice stating he would take criminal action against him unless the false imputation was withdrawn.

8. Though the charges are, thus, not judicially substantiated substantiated by independant proof and though there - are intrinsic improbabilities in the case, to the ill-luck of the Petitioner, Government attached undue - weight to the statement of the Deputy Commissioner by virtue of his high status and position and ordered that the petitioner's services be dispensed with. - (Please vide Enclosure A.)

9. As the petitioner had no knowing on what - grounds the Government had based this order - the order itself having failed to specify the evidence on which the findings had been based, he applied for a copy of the Revenue Commissioner's order and the Deputy Commissioner's statement which was the only evidence in the case, but this grant was summarily refused (Vide Enclosure B).

10. When the petitioner made further representations Government were pleased to modify their order and grant him a compassionate pension. (Vide enclosures C and D).

11. The petitioner humbly begs that the aforesaid incident should not, in any way, stain the character and conduct which he has established by his hard and - honest work for a period of 25 years, a fact which would be borne out from his Service Register and confidential Reports.

12. Wherefore, the Petitioner respectfully prays that this honourable Court may be pleased to direct his enrolment as a First Grade Pleader.
